Junior & Senior Level Ballet Camp with Julie Marie Muskat

Wednesday-Friday, July 5 – 7

This camp is a 1-hour discussion/lecture plus a 1.5-hour ballet class every day in which camp participants can fine-tune and strengthen their ballet skills. The class will progress in difficulty throughout the three days and will include connections to real-world concepts and dance history. Julie will methodically correct technique to further develop more confident ballet dancers. This camp will help dancers strengthen their bodies and work on concepts so that they may start off the year in the top of their classes.

- Junior & Senior Intermediate-Advance Levels
- Time: 2:00-4:30pm
- Tuition: $135

Junior & Senior Level Improvisation/Composition Workshop with Julie Marie Muskat

Monday-Friday, August 21-25

Do you freeze in fear when asked to improvise, or do you want to choreograph but don't quite know how to begin a composition? Or perhaps you're seasoned in both but feeling a bit stuck in a rut or out of ideas. This workshop address all of these issues and provides you with tools to jump-start the creative process and push past the frustrating "writer's block" that we all experience when it comes to improvisation and composition. We will play games, compose mini dance scores and develop ways to begin creating something from nothing.

- Junior & Senior Intermediate-Advance Levels
- Time: 3:00-5:00pm
- Tuition: $175

Flamenco Workshops for Teens/Adults & Middle School Age

"Sevillanas" is a joyful dance of Sevilla, Spain. It is the dance of "Feria," a week-long Spanish spring festival that never stops; where everyone wears their most colorful traditional clothing while dancing in the streets, pubs, plazas and in their homes. Have a lively time in this fun and energetic workshop taught by professional flamenco dancer, Trudy Gustafson. This workshop is for boys and girls, men and women. Participants wear comfortable clothing and shoe choice of: Hard-sole street shoes, jazz shoes, pumps, or traditional flamenco shoes.
